

URBAN VISION ALLIANCE

No one sleeping on the street

ABOUT URBAN VISION ALLIANCE

Founded in 2019, Urban Vision Alliance (UVA) is a civic and technology nonprofit working to address street homelessness by building broad private-public coalitions that deliver collaborative, innovative solutions, including interim supportive housing with integrated services. UVA is based in San Francisco, California.

Co-founders, Gabriel Balducci, CEO, and Dawn Piper, Chief Impact Officer, each bring 25+ years of experience in their respective fields. Gabriel leads strategy at UVA and has experience building startups inside and outside of organizations such as Singularity University and Virgin Group as well as experience in B2B and B2C services, social impact, platform business models, community and global licensing. Dawn drives UVA's operations with her expertise in the human capital industry and scaling startups with roles at Yahoo and Prosper Marketplace.

A NEW APPROACH

- Broad Private-Public Alliance
- Large-Scale Housing Expansion
- Integration of Diverse Services
- Cost Effective Approach
- Chapter Model to Scale
- Tech Platform for Stakeholders to Collaborate

ALLIANCE PARTNERS - 32 Partners and Growing

32
Number of alliance partners

$7.8M
Pro bono & discounted services raised for San Francisco partner housing projects

$1.7M
Pro bono & discounted services raised for UVA operations

10
Number of partner housing projects

1,750
Number of partner housing project beds in development